About the Journal-

The Banyan Tree is an online Multidisciplinary peer-reviewed/refereed journal of Humanities and Social Sciences published by Jagat Taran Girls' Degree College (A Constituent College of University of Allahabad) published annually.

Process & Policy of Publication-

After receiving the article on E-mail of Journal in appropriate format as prescribed in guidelines, the article is then made anonymous and reviewed by two referees (researchers in close related fields). Their comments are synthesized then sent to the author who must produce a revised version of his/her text within 4 to 6 weeks. If accepted by the peer-reviewed committee, the article is then sent to the executive Editor for a last check. The executive editor gives final acceptance (or sends back to the author for minor changes, or possible rejection). The Banyan Tree is concerned with the basic rules in ethics of publication and is therefore supporting the law on intellectual property. Every person publishing in The Banyan Tree (author, reviewer, guest editor) must accept and respect intellectual property and avoid plagiarism.

Guidelines for Authors-

- The author should send their article/research paper/review articles on mail id thebanyantree.jtgdc@gmail.com
- The article should be sent with a cover page consisting Author(s) Name, Discipline, Designation, Affiliation, Email-address and Mobile Number.
- The research article should consist of Title of the article, Abstract (150-250 words), and Keywords.
- The author must send a certificate of originality duly signed by him/her stating that the article is original, followed by publication ethics and IPR and not sent or submitted for publication elsewhere.
- The author will be accountable for all aspects of the work in ensuring that questions related to the accuracy or integrity of any part of the work are appropriately investigated and resolved.
- At submission, the journal should require authors to disclose in cover page whether they used artificial intelligence (AI)-assisted technologies (such as Large Language Models [LLMs], chatbots, or image creators) in the production of submitted work. The final decision regarding the use of AI will be solely of Editorial board.
- The author must express its central hypothesis in clear terms regarding the chosen subject and his/her theoretical perspective(s).
- Ideas developed in the text must be clear and coherent; the argumentation must be convincing.
- Transitions between paragraphs must contribute to the fluidity and coherence of the text.
- The main texts of the article should be in word limit of 3500-5000 excluding the references and bibliography etc...
- The article should be typed in MS word software only with 1.5 lines line-spacing.

- The article in English should be typed in Times New Roman font with 12 font size and Hindi articles should be typed in Mangal Unicode font with 15 font size only.
- Referencing should follow strictly APA style as endnote.
- Keep abbreviations to a minimum, particularly when they are not standard.
- If you must use an abbreviation, make sure you spell it out fully in the text or legend the first time it appears.
- Tables, illustrations and figures must be placed in the body of the text by the author. The text must explicitly refer to the illustration.
- Authors must be aware that it is impossible to prevent the free circulation of pictures such as tables, illustrations and figures on the internet.
- In case of plagiarism, the editorial team will contact the author(s) to discuss the case. The aim is to find a solution and avoid plagiarism in the revised version of the text.
- We strongly recommend that you ask a colleague with different expertise to review your manuscript before you submit it.
- Drafting the work or reviewing it critically is necessary for important intellectual content; and final approval of the version will be published.
